Cotillion

Florida DeMolay sent a large contingent to Georgia DeMolay's "Black and White Ball," their Knighthood Cotillion.

All reports are that it was a great event and everyone had a terrific time.

NY Grand Master Donates Baton

First Coast Chapter reached out for a marshal's baton, and none other than the Grand Master of Masons in New York, MW William J. Thomas, answered the call.

He immediately responded that no DeMolay Chapter should be without proper equipment, and even though it was in another jurisdiction, sent a beautiful baton from a merged Lodge that no longer needed it.

Thank you Grand Master Thomas for displaying the universality of Freemasonry!

DeMolay Supporter at Shrine Retires III. Dad Jack Jones

Florida's own III. Jack Jones, Imperial Recorder at the Shriners International offices in Tampa, has retired after many years of dedicated service.

Dad Jones has been a long-time supporter of DeMolay, and he brought the strength of the Shriners with him. His was an Active Members of the International Supreme Council for many years, now Active Emeritus.

His work for DeMolay International was recognized by being elected an Honorary Past Grand Master of DeMolay, one of only seven people to receive that honor. He is also chairman of the Shriners International's DeMolay Committee.

In Florida DeMolay, he received the Honorary Legion of Honor and is a holder of the "diplomat Award" from the Florida DeMolay Hall of Fame.
